

Heliswiss International AG can look back on over 60 years' experience in precision work with heavy lift helicopters. Our expertise lies in the transport and construction in heavy weight sector all over the world.

Heliswiss International AG is part of the Swiss Helicopter Group, which is the largest private employer in the industry and operates over 40 helicopters. The Group employs a total of over 220 people in various functions at 20 locations.

To join our team in Haltikon (near Lucern), we are looking for a committed person to start immediately or by arrangement as a

Project Manager 80-100%

What you can expect:

- Definition of projects roadmaps with CEO and company Board
- Coordination of resources of the company, aviation civil authority, manufacturers and sister companies if needed
- Responsible for the defined budget, planning and quality standards
- Type of projects:
 - Integration of different helicopter types into the fleet
 - Adaption of existing facilities (hangar, offices, heliport)
 - Adaption and equipment of new site / base
 - Adaption of aviation certifications
 - Integration of new IT system in coordination with sister companies and group support functions
 - Potential development of service capabilities
- Possibility for home office

Your skills:

- Solid technical background, preferably in aviation
- Experience in complex project management
- Excellent communication skills and expertise in presentation
- Good analytical thinking and a structured working manner, ability to prioritize, plan and manage multiple tasks
- Customer- and team-orientated personality with persuasiveness
- Business fluent in written and spoken German and English, further language skills an advantage

Your application

We look forward to receiving your complete application online to Rahel Candrian, HR Specialist, hr@swisshelicopter.ch

Do you have any questions about this position? Stéphane Delaye will answer your questions at +41 79 389 75 26 oder via E-Mail (s.delaye@heliswiss.com).