

To strengthen our team in Haltikon (Schwyz) and in the home office, we are looking for a committed personality as:

HELISWISS
INTERNATIONAL

Nominated Person Ground Operation NPGO 80-100%

Heliswiss International AG is a commercial helicopter company and operates throughout Switzerland as well as in neighbouring countries and overseas with mid-size helicopters. Its core competences lie in the transport of materials, timber, assembly and precision work, as well as fire-fighting operations.

Heliswiss International AG is part of the Swiss Helicopter Group, which is the largest private employer in the industry and operates over 40 helicopters. The Group employs a total of over 220 people in various functions at 20 locations.

What you can expect

- Monitoring of ground equipment and evaluation of possible new equipment purchases
- Responsibility for flight assistant planning for upcoming missions and the provision of refuelling vehicles and vehicles
- Supporting the team during any missions in flight operations
- Crisis team member in the event of exceptional incidents
- Supporting the operations management and working closely with the sales team to coordinate missions with the team, obtain any landing authorisations, plan training and further training
- Managing the heliport
- Developing new guidelines for handling the helicopters and the associated operations

What you bring with you

- Technical background
- Contribution of ideas and new approaches for continuous improvement
- Several years of professional experience in aviation, experience as a flight assistant desirable
- Good organizational skills and multi-functionality
- Analytical and systematic thinking
- Flexibility and good comprehension skills
- German and English mandatory (Level B2/C1), other languages an advantage

What we offer

- An interesting and varied working day with many facets
- A reliable and competent team
- Flexibility in the organisation of work in an international environment
- Training and further education opportunities in connection with the job

Your application

We look forward to receiving your complete application online to Rahel Candrian, HR specialist, hr@swisshelicopter.ch

Do you have any questions about this position? Martin Schlumpf will be happy to answer them on +41 79 475 00 04 or by e-mail (m.schlumpf@heliswiss.com).